

Members' Weekend and Plant Exchange, 5-7 June 2026

We're asking you to book your own accommodation and you'll find there's plenty on offer. We've provided some suggestions below, along with details about how to get here. We will feed you well on Friday night at the dinner event, as well as lunch on Saturday. For the rest of your stay, you might like to know that Bury St Edmunds is the foodie capital of Suffolk. You will find many places to eat and drink, each with their own unique atmosphere.

If you have any questions, please just let us know and we'll do our best to help. Email membership@plantheritage.org.uk or call the office on 01483 447540

GETTING HERE

Venue addresses:

- Guildhall: Guildhall Street, Bury St Edmunds, Suffolk, IP33 1PR
- Helmingham Hall: Stowmarket IP14 6EF <https://www.helmingham.com>
- Framsdén Hall Barn: Framsdén, Suffolk IP14 6HL

Getting to Bury St Edmunds

- By train: Bury St Edmunds has a train station with fast trains from Cambridge (30 mins) as well as trains to London and other cities. The Guildhall is a 10-15 minute walk away. From the Abbey Gate on Angel Hill in the town centre, head up Abbeygate Street to the top. Turn left on to Guildhall Street, where the Guildhall will be on the left-hand side.
- By car: West Suffolk Council has a very efficient website listing the six long-stay, one flexi-stay and nine short-stay car parks and the on-street parking in Bury St Edmunds. It also tells you which parking apps it uses, when the car parks are open, what they cost and how many spaces there are. www.westsuffolk.gov.uk/parking/car_parks/bse_car_parks/

Getting to Helmingham Hall and Framsdén Barn

- By train: If you are just coming for the Saturday, the nearest station is Wickham Market (actually in Campsea Ashe) and the nearest mainline station is Ipswich. If you are coming by train, please let us know when you book and we will see if we can organise some shared lifts or taxis from the station.
- By car: There is plenty of parking both at Helmingham Hall and Framsdén Hall Barn

WHERE TO STAY

We have put together a list of potential places in and around our market town on the following pages. We have not tested all of these and we obviously cannot take responsibility for these venues as Plant Heritage but we hope it will help. There are other places to stay too. If you are coming with friends or family or staying for longer, self-catered accommodation might be a good option. Many of the places in the list have good wheelchair access and are dog friendly but you should check with them when booking.
